

Are you interested in plants - Blue Mountain Nurseries needs you!

Blue Mountain Nurseries are an innovative propagation and production nursery located in the tranquil township of Tapanui known for superb hunting and fishing. We source new plants locally and internationally for markets throughout New Zealand. We Specialise in Rhododendrons and hardy shrubs, producing over 2000 different plants per year. If you love growing plants we have a position suited to you.

Nursery Field Production Supervisor

We are seeking applications from enthusiastic suitably experienced persons for a key position in our Production team. This position is a hands on production position working with a wide range of plants. This person will report to our Wholesale Manager.

The skills needed for this position are a...

- Love of plants
- Enjoys growing plants
- Works well in a team and can relate well to a wide range of people
- Detail orientated
- Nimble handed (Hand dexterity)
- Physically fit
- Enjoys outdoor work
- Experience in production of plants

A qualification in nursery production or similar experience is needed for this position.

Please write in your own hand writing for an application form to.

Blue Mountain Nurseries
99 Bushy Hill st
Tapanui

Or down load from our website www.bmn.co.nz

Applications close Friday 22nd February 2008